

AP World History – Quiz 1

Instructions. Choose the best answer from the associated word bank and log the letter on a separate piece of paper or scantron. NOTE: Some answers may be repeated. DO NOT WRITE ON THE QUIZ DOCUMENT.

A. Seljuk Empire	J. Mongol Empire	R. Calicut
B. Swahili City-States	K. Venice	S. Constantinople
C. Inca Empire	L. Great Zimbabwe	T. Arab caliphates
D. Aztec Empire	M. Hausa Kingdoms	U. Byzantine Empire
E. Solomonic Dynasty	N. Khmer Empire	V. Delhi Sultanate
F. Cuzco	O. Vikings	W. Baghdad
G. Timbuktu	P. Novgorod	X. Tenochtitlan
H. Ottoman Empire	Q. Angkor Wat	Y. Mali

1. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
2. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
3. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
4. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
5. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
6. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
7. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
8. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
9. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
10. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
11. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
12. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
13. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
14. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
15. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
16. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
17. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
18. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
19. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
20. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
21. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
22. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
23. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
24. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.

- Next Page -

A. Abbasid Caliphate	J. Mecca	R. jizya
B. Methodius	K. Melaka	S. Rashidun Caliphate
C. Hangzhou	L. Dhimmi	T. Muslims
D. Srivijaya Empire	M. Code of Justinian	U. Justinian
E. Fatimid Caliphate	N. Mamluks	V. Song Dynasty
F. The Quran	O. Umayyad Caliphate	W. caliph
G. Majapahit Empire	P. Champa kingdoms	X. Five Pillars
H. Constantine I	Q. Constantinople	Y. Sassanid Empire

25. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
26. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
27. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
28. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
29. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
30. See map and match each number with the correct location in the key provided above.
31. This was the capital city of the Eastern Roman Empire until its capture by the Ottoman Empire in 1453 CE.
32. This is the famous Roman emperor who created the capital detailed above and moved his administration there to be closer to their eastern Persian rivals, and legalized Christianity in the Roman Empire in 313 CE.
33. This is the name of the Persian Empire that functioned as the archrival to the Romans from the 3rd to 7th centuries CE.
34. This is the emperor who reconquered the Western Roman Empire in the 6th century and issued several legal policies and reforms that set the foundations for modern legal institutions and practices.
35. This was the name of one of the Byzantine legal policies which formed the basis for modern legal practices.
36. Along with Cyril, this missionary is famous for spreading Christianity into Southern and Eastern Europe and is credited for the conversion of the Slavic peoples.
37. This is the name of the text cataloged by Muhammad which contains the foundational doctrines of Islam.
38. This is the terms ascribed to followers/adherents of Islam.
39. This was the primary Arabic city which hosted the pagan tradition of pilgrimage that was captured by adherents of Islam in 629 CE.
40. This is the name for the foundational practices of Islam which include acknowledgement of the one God & final prophet, fasting during Ramadan, almsgiving, prayer five times per day, and pilgrimage to the Kaaba.
41. This is the title given to the religious and political leader of Islam.
42. This is the name of the political, social, religious, and military entity that expanded rapidly from 632-661 CE and conquered the weakened Sassanid Empire, as well as took roughly half of Byzantine territory before giving way to factional Arab conflicts.
43. This was the name of the political, social, religious, and military entity that emerged from internal conflict and continued Arab expansion into North Africa, Spain, Central Asia, and South Asia from 661-750 CE.
44. This was the name of the political, social, religious, and military entity that revolted and won against the entity detailed above, ruling from 750-1258 CE from its capital in Baghdad, and continuing until the early 16th century.
45. This was the term used to describe the status of second-class citizenship for the 'protected' peoples of Zoroastrianism, Judaism, and Christianity within Muslim states.
46. This was the tax that applied to non-Muslims in Muslim states.
47. This was the name for non-Arab Muslim warriors within the caliphate(s).
48. This was the caliphate continued in Egypt after 1258, ruled and administered mostly by non-Arabs.

- End Quiz -